Key Text:

The Bible: The holy book for Christians, which tells the stories of Jesus, Moses, and other important people.

The Torah: The holy book for Jewish people, which includes the story of Moses leading the Israelites out of Egypt. "Let my people go, so that they may worship me" (Exodus 8:1). This is found in both the Torah and the Bible.

The Qur'an: The holy book for Muslims, which also tells the story of Moses (known as Musa in Arabic) and how he led his people with God's guidance. "We inspired Moses: 'Throw your staff,' and at once it devoured what they falsified!" (Qur'an 7:117).

Key People

Jesus: Jesus is very special because Christians believe he is the Son of God. He taught people about love and kindness.

Moses: Moses is important because he helped free God's people from slavery in Egypt and led them to a special place called the Promised Land.

The Disciples: These were Jesus' close friends who followed him and helped spread his teachings.

Pharaoh: The ruler of Egypt who did not want to let God's people go until God sent many signs to show His power.
